“ There's so many memories that make me smile yet at the same time that smile rolls down my cheeks .and when you come to my heart in memories I think back when we were all kids and on the weekend it was no surprise you and Jimmy and all the kids would be at our house . Hours at a time never in a hurry and that's the way it was supposed to be .. but one Saturday u and moma were in the living room enjoying coffee and and jabbering about what ever crossed your mind . But it was taking a serious turn and you both didn't need ears (me) in there soaking up the conversation . But no way was I going to let you both know u were right and leave the room .lol so I hide in behind the lizzards cage where yall had no idea .I was there . Yes dam straight I was as scared of that lizzard as you all were but i wanted to get you back lol for not wanting me in there with yall so I removed the door and reached inside and grip it by its back where when I pulled it out its front was facing who ever it was pointed at lol all its legs moving like crazy it was trying to whip its tail around wildly .and that's when yall saw me and the door of the cage hit the floor hard you both were trying to run and screaming at the top of ur lungs lol I'm headed your way first and here u were trying to stand up on a 5 gallon tin flour can . Threatening to pee on your self and momas on the kitchen table screaming and all hell broke loose .lol. I didn't get in trouble because I was as scared as yall were jimmy and daddy came in and put it up for us lol . But I gotta tell ya yall never got me to go outside that day . .lol God how I loved my childhood with you and moma in it Mildred.. And I love you both . So wait on me till I get there and I will chase you both around for hugs .I love u Always vicky
